- 1/ The bulk of the joint assets of myself and my spouse are held in a living trust named the Akerlof and Yellen Family Trust, created under an agreement dated May 26, 1992. My husband and I are the Trustees of this living trust. The assets held by this trust are marked with an asterisk (*).
- 2/ The University of California 403b plan and Defined Contribution Plan, both of which cover both me and my spouse, and the University of California 457 plan, which covers my spouse, are defined contribution plans that permit us to allocate investments among various Fidelity funds and also among funds run directly by the University of California. All of the funds are widely diversified and invest in securities ranging from low risk, fixed income securities, insurance company contracts, to equities. My spouse and I have allocated part of our retirement savings through the University of California Defined Contribution Plan to the Insurance Company Contract Fund. In addition to cash (6%), this fund is comprised of insurance company contracts with Prudential, Principal Financial, Metlife, Monumental, New York Life, and Hartford Life that guaranty a fixed annual rate of interest.
- 3/ These are retirement funds managed by TIAA-CREF. My holdings in these funds result from contributions made by Harvard University on my behalf during the period 1971-76 when I served as an Assistant Professor. The TIAA traditional annuity will pay a defined benefit annuity when I retire. My CREF holdings are in a widely diversified stock fund.
- 4/ The Canadian Institute for Advanced Research paid a portion of my spouse's salary from the University of California. These payments were made directly to the University, to finance the release of a comparable amount of time for research on economic growth and public policy.
- 5/ Retirement payments to me and my spouse under the University of California's defined benefit plan are based upon a formula that takes into account years of service, age at retirement, and highest three years of salary. My spouse receives a portion of this benefit in excess of 415 limitations under a nonqualified "415 Restoration Plan."

Part II: Gifts, Reimbursements, and Travel Expenses

For you, your spouse and dependent children, report the source, a brief description, and the value of: (1) gifts (such as tangible items, transportation, lodging, food, or entertainment) received from one source totaling more than $350 and (2) travel-related cash reimbursements received from one source totaling more than $350. For conflicts analysis, it is helpful to indicate a basis for receipt, such as personal friend, agency approval under 5 U.S.C. § 4111 or other statutory authority, etc. For travel-related gifts and reimbursements, include travel itinerary, dates, and the nature of expenses provided. Exclude anything given to you by the U.S. Government; given to your agency in connection with official travel; received from relatives; received by your spouse or dependent child totally independent of their relationship to you; or provided as personal hospitality at the donor's residence. Also, for purposes of aggregating gifts to determine the total value from one source, exclude items worth $140 or less. See instructions for other exclusions.
