Emory A. Rounds, III
Director
Office of Government Ethics
Suite 500
1201 New York Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20005-3919

Dear Mr. Rounds:

In accordance with the provisions of Title I of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978 as amended, I am forwarding the financial disclosure report of Jill Steinberg. President Biden has nominated Ms. Steinberg to serve as the United States Attorney for the Southern District of Georgia. We have conducted a thorough review of the nominee's report and have counseled her on the government ethics rules. The purpose of this letter is to describe the steps that Ms. Steinberg will take to avoid any actual or apparent conflict of interest in the event that she is confirmed for the aforementioned position. Ms. Steinberg understands that it is her responsibility to understand and comply with commitments outlined in this Ethics Agreement (Agreement). This letter and the attached Nominee Statement constitute Ms. Steinberg's Agreement.

Although it is not possible to provide for all of the specific circumstances which might give rise to a financial conflict of interest because the work of United States Attorneys involves a wide variety of matters involving specific parties, and it is not possible to predict where conflicts will arise until specific parties are identified, we have counseled Ms. Steinberg on the applicable conflict of interest laws and regulations and, in particular, on the application of the criminal conflicts of interest law at 18 U.S.C. § 208.

SECTION 1 – GENERAL COMMITMENTS

As required by the criminal conflict of interest law at 18 U.S.C. § 208(a), Ms. Steinberg will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter in which she knows that she has a financial interest directly and predictably affected by the matter, or in which she knows that a person whose interests are imputed to her has a financial interest directly and predictably affected by the particular matter, unless she first obtains a written waiver, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 208(b)(1), or qualifies for a regulatory exemption, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 208(b)(2). She understands that the interests of the following persons are imputed to her:

- Her spouse or any minor child of hers;
- Any general partner of a partnership in which she is a limited or general partner;
- Any organization in which she serves as officer, director, trustee, general partner or employee; and

- Any person or organization with which she is negotiating or has an arrangement concerning prospective employment.

In determining whether a particular matter has a direct and predictable effect on her financial interests or on those of any other person whose interests are imputed to her, Ms. Steinberg will consult with the Executive Office for United States Attorneys (EOUSA), General Counsel's Office, and will follow the procedures outlined in the United States Attorneys' Procedures, (USAP) 3-2.170.001, et seq. As stated in the attachment to this Agreement, Ms. Steinberg understands and agrees to comply with the conflict of interest laws and regulations, and to follow the procedures set forth in this Agreement.

If Ms. Steinberg has a managed account or otherwise uses the services of an investment professional during her appointment, she will ensure that the account manager or investment professional obtains her prior approval on a case-by-case basis for the purchase of any assets other than cash, cash equivalents, investment funds that qualify for the regulatory exemption for diversified mutual funds and unit investment trusts at 5 C.F.R. § 2640.201(a), obligations of the United States, or municipal bonds.

Ms. Steinberg will receive a live ethics briefing from the United States Attorney's Office ethics advisor in connection with her appointment to the position of United States Attorney for the Southern District of Georgia after her confirmation but not later than 15 days after her appointment pursuant to the ethics program regulation at 5 C.F.R. § 2638.305. Within 90 days of her confirmation, Ms. Steinberg will submit her Certification of Ethics Agreement Compliance to the EOUSA, General Counsel's Office, which documents her compliance with this ethics Agreement.

Ms. Steinberg understands that as an appointee she will be required to sign the Ethics Pledge (Executive Order No. 13989) and that she will be bound by it. Among other obligations, she will be required to recuse from particular matters involving specific parties that involve her former employer or former clients for a period of two years after she is appointed, with the exception of Federal, state and local government.

She will not modify this Agreement without my approval and the approval of the U.S. Office of Government Ethics pursuant to the ethics agreement requirements contained in the financial disclosure regulation at 5 C.F.R. § 2634.803(a)(4).

SECTION 2 – BALLARD SPAHR, LLP

Upon confirmation, Ms. Steinberg will resign from her position as a partner of Ballard Spahr LLP. Pursuant to her agreement with the firm, Ms. Steinberg will receive her final payment, representing all amounts owed to her through the date of her withdrawal from the partnership before she assumes the duties of U.S. Attorney. Ballard Spahr LLP may withhold certain amounts from her compensation for account reconciliation and tax purposes. Any excess amounts withheld by the firm that are not used for account reconciliation and tax purposes will be refunded to her no later than five years after her departure. Until she has received all amounts owed to her by the firm, she will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter that to her knowledge has a direct and predictable effect on the ability or willingness of the firm to pay amounts owed to her, unless she first obtains a written waiver, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 208(b)(1).

In addition, pursuant to the impartiality regulation at 5 C.F.R. § 2635.502, for a period of one year after her resignation from Ballard Spahr LLP or until she receives this refund, whichever is later, Ms. Steinberg will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter involving specific parties in which she knows the firm is a party or represents a party, unless she is first authorized to participate, pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.502(d). She also will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter involving specific parties in which she knows a former client of hers is a party or represents a party for a period of one year after she last provided service to that client, unless she is first authorized to participate, pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.502(d).

SECTION 3 – CONFLICTS OF INTEREST REVIEW AND COUNSELING

Ms. Steinberg has been advised that the duties of the position of United States Attorney may involve particular confidential matters identified by the United States Attorney's Office (USAO) that may affect her financial interests. EOUSA has determined that it is not necessary at this time for Ms. Steinberg to divest her financial interests because her recusal from particular matters in which these interests pose a conflict of interest will not substantially limit her ability to perform the essential duties of the position of United States Attorney. Immediately upon confirmation, EOUSA will prepare recusals for all particular matters in which Ms. Steinberg will not be granted a waiver or will not qualify for a regulatory exemption.

The USAO has conducted a conflict review and has found no additional conflicts of interest. Should additional conflicts arise, the USAO will seek the necessary waiver(s) or recusal(s) of the nominee immediately upon her confirmation. An appropriate screening mechanism will be identified and immediately upon appointment of the new United States Attorney, all necessary USAO personnel will be advised in writing of all matters in which the new United States Attorney may not participate. The notification will specifically list the matters and identify the Acting United States Attorney for those matters.

SECTION 4 – OTHER RESIGNATIONS

Upon confirmation, Ms. Steinberg will resign from her positions with the following entities:

- Support Center for Child Advocates
- Human Trafficking Legal Center
- The Advocates for Human Rights
- LexisNexis/Law 360

Pursuant to the impartiality regulation at 5 C.F.R. § 2635.502, for a period of one year after her resignation from each of these entities, Ms. Steinberg will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter involving specific parties in which she knows that entity is a party or represent a party, unless she is first authorized to participate, pursuant to at 5 C.F.R. § 2635.502(d). She also will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter involving specific parties in which she knows a former client of hers is a party or represents a party for a period of one year after she last provided service to that client, unless she is first authorized to participate, pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.502(d).

SECTION 5 – PUBLIC POSTING

Ms. Steinberg has been advised that this Agreement and the Certification of Ethics Agreement Compliance will be posted publicly, consistent with the public information law at 5 U.S.C. § 552, on the website of the U.S. Office of Government Ethics with ethics agreements of other Presidential nominees who file public financial disclosure reports.

Based on the above agreements and counseling, I am satisfied that the enclosed report presents no conflicts of interest under applicable laws and regulations and that you may so certify to the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Sincerely,
ARTHUR
GARY

Gary, Deputy Assistant Attorney General for Policy, Management and Procurement and Alternate Designated Agency Ethics Official on 11/14/2022 and I agree to comply with the commitments outlined in this Agreement. I will not modify this Agreement without your approval and the approval of the U.S. Office of Government Ethics pursuant to the ethics agreement requirements contained in the financial disclosure regulation at 5 C.F.R. § 2634.803(a)(4). Finally, I understand that as an appointee I will be required to sign the Ethics Pledge (Executive Order No. 13989) and that I will be bound by it. Among other obligations, I will be required to recuse from particular matters involving specific parties involving my former employer or former clients for a period of two years after I am appointed, with the exception of Federal, state and local government.
