

BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM
WASHINGTON, DC 20551

June 12, 2023

Mr. Emory A. Rounds, III
Director
U.S. Office of Government Ethics
1201 New York Avenue, NW
Suite 500
Washington, DC 20005

Dear. Mr. Rounds:

The purpose of this letter is to supplement and amend Ms. Lisa Cook's Public Financial Disclosure Report (278e) dated February 28, 2023. Ms. Cook explains in her letter dated June 12, 2023 the reasons for the supplement are as follows: In her initial disclosure, she reported several incorrect amounts for earned and investment income, and an incorrect honorarium and account value. She also inadvertently left off income from an asset that was since divested, and reported the incorrect term for one of her mortgages.

As the Designated Agency Ethics Official of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, I have reviewed the updated information contained in the amendment letter and based upon my review and the prior commitments made by Ms. Cook in her previously transmitted Ethics Agreement, I continue to believe that Ms. Cook is in compliance with applicable laws and regulations governing conflicts of interest.

Sincerely,

SEAN

Re: Amendment to Financial Disclosure Report of Lisa D. Cook

Dear Mr. Croston:

The purpose of this letter is to correct inadvertent errors in the financial disclosure report that I signed on February 28, 2023. In my initial disclosure, I reported several incorrect amounts for earned and investment income, and an incorrect honorarium value and account value. I also inadvertently left off income from an asset that was since divested, and reported the incorrect term for one of my mortgages. The entries below reflect the correct amounts and explanations.

The item(s) identified below are amended, as follows:

Part 2

Updating income amount and adding an endnote

#	Description	EIF	Value	Income Type	Income Amount
4	Teachers Retirement System of GA, defined benefit plan (beneficiary)	N/A		Retirement payments (monthly)	$267

Add Endnote: "The amount stated is the correct amount for the reporting period. The actual amount of the monthly payment is adjusted on an annual and ad hoc basis."

#	Description	EIF	Value	Income Type	Income Amount
5	Employees Retirement System of GA, defined benefit plan (beneficiary)	N/A		Retirement payments (monthly)	$549

Add Endnote: "The amount stated is the correct amount for the reporting period. The actual amount of the monthly payment is adjusted on an annual and ad hoc basis."

#	Description	EIF	Value	Income Type	Income Amount
10	Spelman College	N/A		Consulting Fees	$10,100

#	Description	EIF	Value	Income Type	Income Amount
1.16	HEALTH CARE SELECT SECTOR SPDR	YES	$1,000- $15,000		None (or less than $201)

The following asset was inadvertently omitted from my report:

#	Description	EIF	Value	Income Type	Income Amount
1.17	SELECT SECTOR SPDR TR FINANCIAL SECTOR FUND (XLF)	YES	None (or less than $1,001)		$2,501- $5,000

Add Endnote: This asset was divested per my Ethics Agreement. However, it generated income in the reporting period before it was sold.

Summary of Contents

1. Filer's Positions Held Outside United States Government

Part 1 discloses positions that the filer held at any time during the reporting period (excluding positions with the United States Government). Positions are reportable even if the filer did not receive compensation.

This section does not include the following: (1) positions with religious, social, fraternal, or political organizations; (2) positions solely of an honorary nature; (3) positions held as part of the filer's official duties with the United States Government; (4) mere membership in an organization; and (5) passive investment interests as a limited partner or non-managing member of a limited liability company.

2. Filer's Employment Assets & Income and Retirement Accounts

Part 2 discloses the following:

- Sources of earned and other non-investment income of the filer totaling more than $200 during the reporting period (e.g., salary, fees, partnership share, honoraria, scholarships, and prizes)
- Assets related to the filer's business, employment, or other income-generating activities (1) that ended the reporting period with a value greater than $1,000 or (2) from which more than $200 in income was received during the reporting period (e.g., equity in business or partnership, stock options, retirement plans/accounts and their underlying holdings as appropriate, deferred compensation, and intellectual property, such as book deals and patents)

This section does not include assets or income from United States Government employment or assets that were acquired separately from the filer's business, employment, or other income-generating activities (e.g., assets purchased through a brokerage account). Note: The type of income is not required if the amount of income is $0 - $200 or if the asset qualifies as an excepted investment fund (EIF).

3. Filer's Employment Agreements and Arrangements

Part 3 discloses agreements or arrangements that the filer had during the reporting period with an employer or former employer (except the United States Government), such as the following:

- Future employment
- Leave of absence
- Continuing payments from an employer, including severance and payments not yet received for previous work (excluding ordinary salary from a current employer)
- Continuing participation in an employee welfare, retirement, or other benefit plan, such as pensions or a deferred compensation plan
- Retention or disposition of employer-awarded equity, sharing in profits or carried interests (e.g., vested and unvested stock options, restricted stock, future share of a company's profits, etc.)

4. Filer's Sources of Compensation Exceeding $5,000 in a Year

Part 4 discloses sources (except the United States Government) that paid more than $5,000 in a calendar year for the filer's services during any year of the reporting period.

The filer discloses payments both from employers and from any clients to whom the filer personally provided services. The filer discloses a source even if the source made its payment to the filer's employer and not to the filer. The filer does not disclose a client's payment to the filer's employer if the filer did not provide the services for which the client is paying.

5. Spouse's Employment Assets & Income and Retirement Accounts

Part 5 discloses the following:

- Sources of earned income (excluding honoraria) for the filer's spouse totaling more than $1,000 during the reporting period (e.g., salary, consulting fees, and partnership share)
- Sources of honoraria for the filer's spouse greater than $200 during the reporting period
- Assets related to the filer's spouse's employment, business activities, other income-generating activities (1) that ended the reporting period with a value greater than $1,000 or (2) from which more than $200 in income was received during the reporting period (e.g., equity in business or partnership, stock options, retirement plans/accounts and their underlying holdings as appropriate, deferred compensation, and intellectual property, such as book deals and patents)

This section does not include assets or income from United States Government employment or assets that were acquired separately from the filer's spouse's business, employment, or other income-generating activities (e.g., assets purchased through a brokerage account). Note: The type of income is not required if the amount of income is $0 - $200 or if the asset qualifies as an excepted investment fund (EIF). Amounts of income are not required for a spouse's earned income (excluding honoraria).

6. Other Assets and Income

Part 6 discloses each asset, not already reported, (1) that ended the reporting period with a value greater than $1,000 or (2) from which more than $200 in investment income was received during the reporting period. For purposes of the value and income thresholds, the filer aggregates the filer's interests with those of the filer's spouse and dependent children.

This section does not include the following types of assets: (1) a personal residence (unless it was rented out during the reporting period); (2) income or retirement benefits associated with United States Government employment (e.g., Thrift Savings Plan); and (3) cash accounts (e.g., checking, savings, money market accounts) at a single financial institution with a value of $5,000 or less (unless more than $200 in income was received). Additional exceptions apply. Note: The type of income is not required if the amount of income is $0 - $200 or if the asset qualifies as an excepted investment fund (EIF).

7. Transactions

Part 7 discloses purchases, sales, or exchanges of real property or securities in excess of $1,000 made on behalf of the filer, the filer's spouse or dependent child during the reporting period.

This section does not include transactions that concern the following: (1) a personal residence, unless rented out; (2) cash accounts (e.g., checking, savings, CDs, money market accounts) and money market mutual funds; (3) Treasury bills, bonds, and notes; and (4) holdings within a federal Thrift Savings Plan account. Additional exceptions apply.

8. Liabilities

Part 8 discloses liabilities over $10,000 that the filer, the filer's spouse or dependent child owed at any time during the reporting period.

This section does not include the following types of liabilities: (1) mortgages on a personal residence, unless rented out (limitations apply for PAS filers); (2) loans secured by a personal motor vehicle, household furniture, or appliances, unless the loan exceeds the item's purchase price; and (3) revolving charge accounts, such as credit card balances, if the outstanding liability did not exceed $10,000 at the end of the reporting period. Additional exceptions apply.

9. Gifts and Travel Reimbursements

This section discloses:

- Gifts totaling more than $415 that the filer, the filer's spouse, and dependent children received from any one source during the reporting period.
- Travel reimbursements totaling more than $415 that the filer, the filer's spouse, and dependent children received from any one source during the reporting period.

For purposes of this section, the filer need not aggregate any gift or travel reimbursement with a value of $166 or less. Regardless of the value, this section does not include the following items: (1) anything received from relatives; (2) anything received from the United States Government or from the District of Columbia, state, or local governments; (3) bequests and other forms of inheritance; (4) gifts and travel reimbursements given to the filer's agency in connection with the filer's official travel; (5) gifts of hospitality (food, lodging, entertainment) at the donor's residence or personal premises; and (6) anything received by the filer's spouse or dependent children totally independent of their relationship to the filer. Additional exceptions apply.

Privacy Act Statement

Title I of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended (the Act), 5 U.S.C. app. § 101 et seq., as amended by the Stop Trading on Congressional Knowledge Act of 2012 (Pub.
