Dear Mr. Rounds:

In accordance with the provisions of Title I of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978 as amended, I am forwarding the financial disclosure report of Lawrence Keefe. President Trump has nominated Mr. Keefe to serve as United States Attorney for the Northern District of Florida.

We have conducted a thorough review of the enclosed report and have counseled Mr. Keefe on the ethics rules. Although it is not possible to provide for all of the specific circumstances which might give rise to a financial conflict of interest because the work of United States Attorneys involves a wide variety of matters involving specific parties, and it is not possible to predict where conflicts will arise until specific parties are identified, we have counseled Mr. Keefe on the applicable conflict-of-interest laws and regulations and, in particular, on the application of 18 U.S.C. § 208.

As required by 18 U.S.C. § 208 and the provisions of 5 C.F.R. § 2635.401 et seq., Mr. Keefe will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter in which he knows that he has a financial interest directly and predictably affected by the matter, or in which he knows that a person whose interests are imputed to him has a financial interest directly and predictably affected by the matter, unless he first obtains a written waiver, pursuant to Section 208(b)(1), or qualifies for a regulatory exemption, pursuant to Section 208(b)(2). Mr. Keefe understands that the interests of the following persons are imputed to him: his spouse; minor children; any general partner of a partnership in which he is a limited or general partner; any organization in which he serves as an officer, director, trustee, general partner or employee; and any person or organization with which he is negotiating or has an arrangement concerning prospective employment. In determining whether a particular matter has a direct and predictable effect on his financial interests or on those of any other person whose interests are imputed to him, Mr. Keefe will consult with the Executive Office for United States Attorneys (EOUSA), General Counsel's Office, and will follow the procedures outlined in the United States Attorneys' Manual, Section 3-2.170 et seq. As stated in the attachment to this Ethics Agreement, Mr. Keefe understands and agrees to comply with the conflict of interest statute and regulations, and to follow the procedures set forth in this agreement.

Mr. Keefe is a partner of the law firm of Keefe, Anchors & Gordon, P.A. Upon confirmation, Mr. Keefe will withdraw from the partnership, and the firm will change its name to "Anchors Gordon, P.A." Pursuant to his agreement with the firm, Mr. Keefe will receive a final lump-sum payment of his capital account before he assumes the duties of his position. For a period of one year after his resignation, he will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter involving specific parties in which this firm is a party or represents a party, unless he is first authorized to participate, pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.502(d). In addition, he will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter involving specific parties in which a former client of his is a party or represents a party for a period of one year after he last provided service to that client, unless he is first authorized to participate, pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.502(d).

Upon confirmation, Mr. Keefe will resign from his positions with the following entities: SoCoSIX Strategies, LLC; Grey Rock, LLC; Greenstone Strategies, LLC; Bluestone Solutions, LLC; Mosaic Partners, LLC; R & B Amusements, LLC; CPK Ventures, Inc.; Action Land Title, Inc.; Import City, Inc.; and Mustang Consulting, LLC. For a period of one year after his resignation from each of these entities, he will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter involving specific parties in which he knows this organization is a party or represents a party, unless he is first authorized to participate, pursuant to 5 CFR § 2635.502(d).

Mr. Keefe will divest his interest in the First Trust NASDAQ Cybersecurity ETF and First Trust NYSE Arca Biotech ETF within 90 days of his confirmation. Until he has completed this divestiture, Mr. Keefe will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter that to his knowledge has a direct and predictable effect on the financial interests of any holding of the First Trust NASDAQ Cybersecurity ETF and First Trust NYSE Arca Biotech ETF, unless he first obtains a written waiver, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 208(b)(1), or qualifies for a regulatory exemption, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 208(b)(2).

If Mr. Keefe relies on a de minimis exemption under 5 C.F.R. § 2640.202 with regard to any of his financial interests in securities, he will monitor the value of those interests. If the aggregate value of interests affected by a particular matter increases and exceeds the de minimis threshold, he will not participate personally and substantially in the particular matter that to his knowledge has a direct and predictable effect on the interests, unless he first obtains a written waiver pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 208(b)(2).

Mr. Keefe's spouse is the owner of her pediatric practice, Lynn Keefe, M.D. Pediatrics, LLC. For as long as Mr. Keefe's spouse continues to own the pediatric LLC, he will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter that to his knowledge has a direct and predictable effect on the financial interests of this entity, unless he first obtains a written waiver, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 208(b)(1).

Mr. Keefe's spouse is employed by the State of Florida Department of Health, for which she receives a fixed salary. For as long as his spouse continues to work for the State of Florida Department of Health, he will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter involving specific parties in which he knows this Department is a party or represents a party, unless he is first authorized to participate, pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.502(d).

Mr. Keefe, along with his spouse and sons, own One Maple, LLC. Upon confirmation, Mr. Keefe will resign from his position as Manager of One Maple, LLC. He will continue to have a financial interest in this entity, but he will not provide services material to the production of income. Instead, he will receive only passive investment income from it. He will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter that to his knowledge has a direct and predictable effect on the financial interests of One Maple, LLC, unless he first obtains a written waiver, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 208(b)(1).

If Mr. Keefe has a managed account or otherwise uses the services of an investment professional during his appointment, he will ensure that the account manager or investment professional obtains his prior approval on a case-by-case basis for the purchase of any assets other than cash, cash equivalents, investment funds that qualify for the exemption at 5 C.F.R. § 2640.201(a), or obligations of the United States.

Mr. Keefe has been advised that the duties of the position of United States Attorney may involve particular confidential matters identified by the United States Attorney's Office (USAO) that may affect his financial interests. EOUSA has determined that it is not necessary at this time for Mr. Keefe to divest his financial interests because his recusal from particular matters in which these interests pose a conflict of interest will not substantially limit his ability to perform the essential duties of the position of United States Attorney. Immediately upon confirmation, EOUSA will prepare recusals for all particular matters in which Mr. Keefe will not be granted a waiver or will not qualify for a regulatory exemption.

The USAO has conducted a conflict review, and has found no additional conflicts of interest. Should additional conflicts arise, the USAO will seek the necessary waiver(s) or recusal(s) of the nominee immediately upon his confirmation. An appropriate screening mechanism will be identified and immediately upon appointment of the new United States Attorney, all necessary USAO personnel will be advised in writing of all matters in which the new United States Attorney may not participate. The notification will specifically list the matters and identify the Acting United States Attorney for those matters.

Mr. Keefe will meet in person with the United States Attorney's Office ethics advisor during the first week of his service in the position of United States Attorney for the Northern District of Florida in order to complete the initial ethics briefing required under 5 C.F.R. § 2638.305. Within 90 days of his confirmation, he will document his compliance with this ethics agreement by notifying the Executive Office for United States Attorneys, General Counsel's Office, in writing when he has completed the steps described in this ethics agreement.

Mr. Keefe has been advised that this ethics agreement will be posted publicly, consistent with 5 U.S.C. § 552, on the website of the U.S. Office of Government Ethics with ethics agreements of other Presidential nominees who file public financial disclosure reports.

Finally, Mr. Keefe understands that as an appointee he will be required to sign the Ethics Pledge (Exec. Order No. 13770) and that he will be bound by the requirements and restrictions therein in addition to the commitments he has made in this ethics agreement.

Based on the above agreements and counseling, I am satisfied that the report presents no conflicts of interest under applicable laws and regulations and that you can so certify to the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Sincerely,

Lee J. Lofthus
Assistant Attorney General
For Administration and Designated Agency Ethics Official
