Dear Mr. Apol:

In accordance with the provisions of Title I of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978 as amended, I am forwarding the financial disclosure report of Mr. Michael S. Yeager. President Trump has nominated Mr. Yeager to serve as the United States Marshal for the Northern District of Georgia. We have conducted a thorough review of the nominee's report and have counseled him on the government ethics rules.

As required by 18 U.S.C. § 208(a), Mr. Yeager will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter in which he knows that he has a financial interest directly and predictably affected by the matter, or in which he knows that a person whose interests are imputed to him has a financial interest directly and predictably affected by the matter, unless he first obtains a written waiver, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 208(b)(1), or qualifies for a regulatory exemption, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 208(b)(2). He understands that the interests of the following persons are imputed to him: his spouse; minor children; any general partner of a partnership in which he is a limited or general partner; any organization in which he serves as officer, director, trustee, general partner or employee; and any person or organization with which he is negotiating or has an arrangement concerning prospective employment.

Upon confirmation, Mr. Yeager will resign from his position with the Coweta County Sheriffs' Office. For a period of one year after his resignation, Mr. Yeager will have a "covered relationship" with the Coweta County Sheriffs' Office pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.502. He has been advised that his participation in particular matters involving specific parties in which the Coweta County Sheriff's Office is a party or represents a party will be authorized pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.502(d).

Upon confirmation, Mr. Yeager will also resign from his positions on the following state boards: Chairman, Georgia Peace Officers' Standards and Training Council; Board Member, Georgia Department of Community Supervision; and Board Member, Georgia Immigration Enforcement Review Board. For a period of one year after his resignation from each of these entities, he will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter involving specific parties in which he knows that entity is a party or represents a party, unless he is first authorized to participate, pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.502(d).

If Mr. Yeager has a managed account or otherwise uses the services of an investment professional during his appointment, he will ensure that the account manager or investment professional obtains his prior approval on a case-by-case basis for the purchase of any assets other than cash, cash equivalents, investment funds that qualify for the exemption at 5 C.F.R. § 2640.201(a), or obligations of the United States.

Mr. Yeager has been advised that this ethics agreement will be posted publicly, consistent with 5 U.S.C. § 552, on the website of the U.S. Office of Government Ethics with ethics agreements of other Presidential nominees who file public financial disclosure reports.

Mr. Yeager will meet live with United States Marshals Service ethics officials in connection with his appointment to the position of United States Marshal for the Northern District of Georgia during the timeframe established by 5 C.F.R. § 2638.305(b) in order to complete the initial ethics briefing required under 5 C.F.R. § 2638.305. Within 90 days of his confirmation, he will document his compliance with this ethics agreement by notifying United States Marshals Service ethics officials in writing when he has completed the steps described in this ethics agreement.

Finally, Mr. Yeager understands that as an appointee he will be required to sign the Ethics Pledge (Exec. Order No. 13770) and that he will be bound by the requirements and restrictions therein in addition to the commitments he has made in this ethics agreement.

Based on the above agreements and counseling, I am satisfied that the enclosed report presents no conflicts of interest under applicable laws and regulations and that you may so certify to the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Sincerely,

Lee J. Lofthus
Assistant Attorney General for Administration and Designated Agency Ethics Official

Enclosure

NOMINEE STATEMENT

I have read the Ethics Agreement signed by Lee J. Loftus, Assistant Attorney General for Administration and Designated Agency Ethics Official on June 27, 2018, and I agree to comply with the conflict of interest statute and regulations, and to follow the procedures set forth in the agreement. In addition, I understand that as an appointee I will be required to sign the Ethics Pledge (Exec. Order No. 13770) and that I will be bound by the requirements and restrictions therein in addition to the commitments I have made in this ethics agreement.

Michael S. Yeager
