Resolution Information

Resolution Date*:	2017-02-09
Resolution Category*:	Resolved – ELPB Consultation
Response*:	I informed Mr. Gaeta that: 1) OGE is not involved in whether individuals receive an appointment to work in the White House, and 2) we were not involved in any determination of Mr. Icahn's role or, 3) whether he is or should be appointed to a government employee position. I also informed Mr. Gaeta that the Department of Justice's Office of Legal Counsel has previously issued a legal opinion detailing the factors to consider when determining whether a President's informal advisor should be considered an employee (usually an SGE). Mr. Gaeta indicated that he planned to write a letter to the White House inquiring about Mr. Icahn's employee status, and whether O.L.C. had weighed in on his determination. (Assigned to: Kelsey D. Title*:	18 USC § 207(k)
Question*:	CRS just received an inquiry about 18 USC 207(k) waivers granted by the president for up to 25 people. (k) (1) (A) The President may grant a waiver of a restriction imposed by this section to any officer or employee described in paragraph (2) if the President determines and certifies in writing that it is in the public interest to grant the waiver and that the services of the officer or employee are critically needed for the benefit of the Federal Government. Not more than 25 officers and employees currently employed by the Federal Government at any one time may have been granted waivers under this paragraph. Are these waivers tracked by OGE? If so, our requester would like to know who is on this waiver list. If they are not tracked by OGE, do you know where they are housed?

Response*:	I informed Jacob that there have been no 18 USC 207(k) waivers ever issued. I also indicated that any such waiver would take the form of a certification by the President issued in the FR and that a copy of FR issuance would also have to be sent to the Director of OGE. I said that the FR would be a "repository" for any waivers as well as the issuing agency, while OGE only receives a copy of the certificate. In addition, I pointed out that no waiver can be issued to an employee of the EOP. Finally, I referred Jacob to our regulations on this statutory provision found at: 5 CFR § 2641.301(i).
