Hello, Ben:

It was a pleasure talking to you yesterday. Unrelated, I just wanted to close the loop on OGE's responsibilities under EO 14008. This email is to confirm our understanding that only agencies that received a request from the White House are required to provide the plans and reports outlined in the EO. Having received no such request, OGE is not covered by the EO.

Thank you and have a great weekend!

BOAC Members:

Attached is Fiscal Year (FY) 2025 Budget Guidance from the Office of Management and Budget. This year, agency budget submissions are due to OMB on Monday, September 11.

As noted in the attached guidance, your OMB Resource Management Office (RMO) will reach out to you to provide the funding target for your FY 2025 discretionary submission, as well as any other agency-specific guidance for the FY 2025 submission. It is critically important for agencies to submit a budget at guidance.

Similar to past years, this memo includes guidance on Administration priorities that agencies are asked to account for in their FY 2025 Budget submission to OMB, including management guidance and specific guidance on climate priorities.

If you have any questions, please contact your RMO or the points of contact included in the guidance memo.

PIOs / Deputy PIOs –

Yesterday OMB issued its ‘Spring Planning Guidance’ for formulation and development of the FY 2025 President’s Budget (see attached Memo) and OMB communicated this guidance to agencies via the BOAC and PMC.

Of particular note to this group in this year’s guidance is language prioritizing investments related to (b) (5). I had an opportunity to highlight this language for the BOAC this afternoon, while also emphasizing the critical role and resources that PIOs can provide in helping facilitate the development of agency proposals in this space. Please take an opportunity to review OMB’s FY 2025 Budget Spring Planning Guidance, and work with your budget shops and major operating units to develop (b) (5)

We will plan for time at our upcoming PIO Council meeting in July to discuss this year’s Budget guidance in further detail. In the interim, please reach out to OMB (either our team or your RMO POCs) if you have any questions.

Best regards,
Scott

Good afternoon, all:

Today OPM issued a memorandum titled, “Dangerous Air Quality Conditions Due to Canadian Wildfires.” Among other things, the memo provides information and advice on the best ways to cope with dangerous air quality conditions to protect ourselves and our families. The following links to official federal government information may be helpful:

- The Environmental Protection Agency’s (EPA) AirNow Fire and Smoke Map which gives the public information on fire locations, smoke plumes, near real-time air quality and actions to take to protect your health all in one place.
- The EPA’s AirNow app, available for free on the Apple App Store and Google Play Store, can be used to check the AirNow Fire and Smoke Map by tapping the Smoke icon in the app.
- EPA’s AirNow guidance on ways to reduce exposure when smoke is in the air.
- The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention guidance on air quality and wildfire smoke.
- The Department of Health and Human Service’s Office of Climate Change and Health Equity guidance on the current wildfire outlook.

A 508-conformant version of the memorandum is posted online at:

Good morning –

We received positive news on our FY25 request from OMB, but consistent with past practice our budget passback also contains policy priorities/directives to be aware of and/or that we must address in our FY25 justification, which goes to Congress in February. Please review for the items related to your responsibilities and for your action.

Thanks,
Shelley
