Derek:

Please see the link below to the public financial disclosure guide with a chart that details the reporting periods for candidate reports:

<https://www.oge.gov/Web/278eGuide.nsf/Content/Definitions~The+OGE+Form+278e+%E2%80%93+Candidate+Report>

Note: Any filing extensions do not change the start or end date of the reporting period.

The filer became a candidate in December 2022. Although the filer submitted a report in April 2023 which reported through mid-December 2022, he must file again by May 15, 2023 using the reporting periods specified in the chart. Please let me know if you have any further questions.

Hey Lori, Were you able to email the trump file? If you did how did you do it? I'm having to split the file into 8 separate files. I tried splitting it into 6 and it came back undeliverable – before I split it into 8 files I wanted to check to see if you figured this out☺

Talking to Nishtar now and he mentioned that Zohair helped you.

My name is Deborah Bortot and I am the Chief of the Presidential Nominations Branch, the unit within the U.S. Office of Government Ethics (OGE) responsible for reviewing the Presidential Candidate report filed by former President Trump. Jack MacDonald and Lorna Syme have been in contact with you regarding our review of the report and have provided some comments and questions.

I am just following up to note that, although OGE generally has 60 days to review a Candidate report, we are required to release such reports within 30 days of receipt. Therefore, whenever possible, we try to have all outstanding comments and questions addressed by then so that the released report reflects a completed review process. The 30-day period for former President Trump's Candidate report ends on September 13, 2023.

I also want to inform you that according to our procedures for candidate reports, if a review cannot be completed within 60 days, OGE will send a formal letter establishing a 30 day deadline for resolving all outstanding issues. If the candidate is making progress on the report and resolution of all outstanding issues is imminent, however, the General Counsel may delay issuance of the letter by up to 10 days upon request by the candidate's representative. Please be advised, should OGE send a letter, the letter will be posted on OGE's website.

Please let us know if there is anything we can do to assist you or if you have any questions about the review process.

Please respond to this message to confirm receipt.

Lorna, thank you for getting back to me. I will attempt to send the report in two parts.

I believe there was an interest in ensuring that OGE had an initialed version given that the 30-day period from filing ends tomorrow and the report becomes publicly available. If there are additional questions or requested revisions, we will certainly address those.

Hi Scott:

No, we did not receive the attachment.

Also, we are a little concerned about the pages being initialed already as we did not give the go-ahead and the report still has to go up the chain for review. Please keep in mind that if there are additional changes the filer may need to initial some of the pages again.

I have both reports as being received today, August 15, should I change it to received yesterday? I just want to make sure the day counting is correct😊

I'm working on OCRing each of the files – making it much easier to search😊. I'm going to see if I can combine all of the Trump files into one file.

Dave,

I made your changes, but also made some additional changes to the letter. They are tracked.
