Hey Rachel—

I spoke with Seth last evening about the HHS gig. I totally expected a declination as I know how crazy your world is these days!!

I was wondering (if you have a few moments) if you'd be willing to share with me the materials you used for your portion of the presentation at the Summit. I understand someone from the WH co-presented with you.

I'm not truly keen on volunteering myself for even the 207(c) portion of this because I suspect they will have Pledge questions along with 207 concerns and I do not want to put myself on that hook.

Nevertheless, before I give Mary a firm "no" I thought I should at least consider whether I might be able to assist.

Thanks Rachel.

How to handle spam and/or suspicious email

If you receive email that you consider to be spam or potentially malicious, please forward a copy of the suspected email as an attachment to Non-Responsive Network Info.

IMPORTANT: Simply forwarding a message does not keep the original message headers, which makes the submission unsuitable for analysis. You must forward the suspected email as an attachment.

<https://www.bisnow.com/washington-dc/news/office/facing-gsa-departures-pembroke-launches-full-scale-renovation-of-1201-new-york-ave-nw-74318>

Pics look crazy! Also: "The renovation's first phase will also more than double the size of the gym, creating a 6K SF fitness center. It will feature a Wellbeats on-demand fitness system allowing users to customize their workouts. The gym will include more open space for dynamic workouts and fewer stationary machines, a recent trend Saunders has seen emerging. Despite its prime location, the building has an orange mansard roof with no access for its office tenants to enjoy the views. The renovation's first phase will change that, creating a 15K SF indoor-outdoor roof deck. The indoor portion will have conference space that can fit up to 140 people, plus a clubroom with table games. The outdoor portion will be landscaped and have seating areas with views of the Washington Monument and overlooking the nearby activity at CityCenter."

Subject: Who is Bill Water?

If you're desperate try feeding him Royal Canin Babycat Instinctive in cans. This is very fattening but my cats go crazy for it so if you're worried about him starving it's an option.

You can try some of the better quality dry foods like Acana or Taste of the Wild.

For your secret weapon try Natures Variety Instinct dry food (any of the non rabbit flavors as the rabbit is sourced from China). I have never seen my cats go crazier for a dry food before so it might get your kitty to eat. However, be prepared for room clearing dumps from your cat. I don't know what is in this food but it comes out of your cat as pure concentrated evil.

Why are you not doing something about Trump? This travel ban is illegal. DO something about him.

He has to stop tweet ranting.

He has to disclose what countries he does business in and he has to prove to the satisfaction of the people he works for that he is not involved in any way with these businesses.

His wife has to act like a First Lady -- although that is the least of our problems with Trump.

Do something about his lying -- he is in the press saying "The law is very clear that the president has broad powers to keep this country safe...He's utilized that power in a very legal, constitutional manner to ensure that we are safe, our country is safe our institutions are safe. It's somewhat sad to see a judge go rogue like this." YOU MUST speak out against this to the media -- you must start speaking out against Trump in the media!!!! That law is not intended for blocking persons with legal visas from entering our country -- that is not within the spirit of that broad law.

DO SOMETHING ABOUT TRUMP why do you sit idly by while every single day Trump does something dangerously outrageous and then lies about it, twisting the truth to accuse his accusers of what he himself is doing!

The Judge was not the one going rogue -- it was/ is Trump!

I expect you to do something about this lunatic. Take real action. So far you do nothing.
