Nicole,

It seems that the agency for whom the employee works would be the better agency to list – just my thoughts.

In the future the waivers will be issued by the DAEO at the employing agency – but there could be a couple more of these that were issued by OMB prior to the designation to the DAEO’s.

Thanks,
Seth

Funmi and Cheryl,

Attached please find a pledge waiver signed by Sam Bagenstos, OMB GC and DAEO. We will post this by not later than March 12th, and will send the link to OGE.

Laurie

OK. We will. That’s what I realized, unfortunately after I had.

Thanks Laurie, I appreciate you checking in on this, for consistency, my preference would be to have .

Funmi and Cheryl,

Attached is a waiver of Paragraph 2 of the Ethics. As I was getting ready to send this to you, it occurred to me that perhaps we should. It seems to me that.

Do either of you have an opinion on which would be preferable?
Once we get this figured out, OMB will post this waiver within 10 business days of last Friday and will send the link to OMB for inclusion on its website.

MEMORANDUM FOR AVIVA ARON-DINE

Pursuant to Section 3 of Executive Order 13989 (January 20, 2021) (EO 13989), and for the reasons stated below, I hereby grant a limited waiver of the requirements of Section 1, Paragraph 2 of EO 13989 for Aviva Aron-Dine solely with respect to the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities (CBPP). I have determined that this waiver is necessary and it is in the public interests to permit Ms. Aron-Dine, when representing the interests of the President and the United States as the Executive Associate Director (EAD) for the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), to communicate directly with CBPP.

Background

Section 1 of EO 13989, “Ethics Commitments by Executive Branch Personnel” (the Ethics Pledge), requires all covered political appointees to abide by certain commitments. Paragraph two of EO 13989 provides that a covered appointee may not, for a period of two years from the date of appointment, participate in any particular matter involving specific parties that is directly and substantially related to a former employer or former client. In addition to communication with former employers and clients with respect to specific party matters, the definition of that term also includes “meetings or other communications relating to the performance of one’s official duties with a former employer or client.” This restriction would prevent Ms. Aron-Dine from discussions with CBPP on both matters specifically involving CBPP, but also discussions on broad policy issues, such as overall funding levels in the budget or the adequacy of funding for particular federal programs.

A waiver of the restrictions contained in Section 1, Paragraph 2 of EO 13989 may be granted upon a certification either that the literal application of the restriction is inconsistent with the purpose of the restriction, or that it is in the public interest to grant the waiver. EO 13989, Section 3.

An economist, Ms. Aron-Dine is a leading authority on health, budget, and tax policy, with experience coordinating Federal policy on a number of matters. Ms. Aron-Dine has served in budget, tax, and health policy positions within the Executive Branch of the United States Government, and the private sector. Most recently, Ms. Aron-Dine served as the Vice President for Health policy at CBPP. In that position, she led CBPP’s work on Medicaid, the Affordable Care Act, and other health care issues. Prior to that, Ms. Aron-Dine served as a Senior Counselor to the Secretary at the Department of Health and Human Services, with responsibility for Affordable Care Act implementation and for Medicaid, Medicare, and delivery system reform policy. She has also served as Associate Director for Economic Policy and then as Acting Deputy Director and Executive Associate Director at OMB, and as a Special Assistant to the President for Economic Policy at the National Economic Council. In these latter roles she worked on a wide range of budget and tax issues.

As OMB’s EAD, Ms. Aron-Dine will be responsible for helping to craft the President’s discretionary and mandatory budget proposals, advocating for the inclusion of these proposals in legislation, and advising on budget execution and program administration issues across government.

The Center on Budget and Policy Priorities is a nonpartisan research and policy institute. It researches and publishes information about federal and state policies designed to reduce poverty and inequality, and to pursue fiscal responsibility. CBPP has no clients, is not a membership organization, and does not receive any federal grants or other funding.

Analysis

In accordance with Section 3 of Executive Order, I have concluded that it is in the public interest to grant Ms. Aron-Dine a limited waiver of the of the requirements of Section 1, Paragraph 2 of EO 13989 to enable her to effectively carry out her duties as OMB’s Executive Associate Director.

In making that assessment, I have determined that CBPP has expertise that is unique among non-governmental organizations in a number of areas directly relevant to Ms. Aron-Dine’s responsibilities at OMB. These areas include: funding levels and policy design of low-income and health programs and various technical budget concepts. CBPP also plays a unique role in shaping congressional, press, and public understanding of these issues. If Ms. Aron-Dine were not permitted to have direct communication with CBPP, her ability to fully and effectively perform the duties of her position would be impaired. Simply put, this waiver is supported by the government’s critical need for Ms. Aron-Dine to obtain the unique expert information provided by CBPP, and the fact that CBPP is a non-profit organization.

Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, I grant Ms. Aron-Dine a limited waiver of the restrictions in Section 1, paragraph 2 of the Executive Order to enable her to effectively carry out her duties as Executive Associate Director. Pursuant to this waiver, Aron-Dine may have direct communication with CBPP. This waiver does not otherwise affect Ms. Aron-Dine obligation to comply with all other applicable government ethics rules and provisions of the Executive Order. Specifically, this waiver does not permit Ms. Aron-Dine to participate in any party-specific matters directly affecting the financial interests of CBPP, including but not limited to, contracts or grants.

Subject: RE: Signed Ethics Pledge Waiver

Good morning, Karena and Cole:

I realize my Friday email may have seemed a little curt, but that wasn’t my intention. Regarding signatory: I assume ADAEO is fine, if there is no DAEO in place. I will let you know if otherwise. But I did want to confirm that you all hadn’t yet appointed the new DAEO. Thanks for confirming.

As you say, we post a link to the site where the agency hosts the waiver. Here’s the page where we put those links: https://www.oge.gov/web/oge.nsf/Agency+Ethics+Pledge+Waivers+(EO+13989). To navigate to that page from the home page: Access Ethics Documents > View Officials’ Individual Disclosures (red box) > on this page, under “Additional Documents,” you’ll see Ethics Pledge Waivers with a link to the Biden Administration. From there, you can see examples of how 3 other agencies set up the waivers on their respective sites.

The other thing you’ll see on our page is that we include the date the agency posted the waiver to its site. As you know, the EO creates a 10 day deadline for posting, and our Advisory creates a 7 day deadline for letting us know once it’s posted. I realize it takes time for a large agency to make changes to its website, but you might share that information with your IT folks as a way to move things along.

Best,
Hi Tyler –

Please see LA-21-04 for instructions. Waivers must be signed by the DAEO, but I don’t believe HHS has appointed a new one yet, is that right? Also, do you have the hyperlink of the HHS page where the public can access the waiver?

Thanks,
Wendy

Shelley,

I added some notes to the spreadsheet Nicole provided (attached).

In summary, I sent emails to 10 agencies asking for information concerning Ethics Pledge Waivers we believe were granted to 17 individuals. So far:

- Eight agencies have responded. CIA and the VA, each of which were asked about one individual, have not yet responded.

- DOJ has acknowledged one of the two individuals we asked about has a waiver and provided a link. The link did take me to a waiver that was dated. I’ll follow up to confirm the date on the waiver is what we should use as the date it was issued and get the date it was posted. DOJ is still checking on the other individual’s waiver.

- The remaining seven agencies that have responded all denied waivers had been granted to any of the individuals whose names were provided. These seven agencies accounted for 13 of the individuals we asked about.

- The email sent to State inquired about waivers granted to four individuals. One of the individuals submitted a Certification of Ethics Agreement Compliance that clearly indicated Ethics Pledge Waivers were granted on 4/21, 4/28, and 5/20. (State is one of the seven agencies that responded and stated that no waivers had been granted to the individuals we asked about.)

How confident are we that waivers were granted to all of the people on Nicole’s list? Based on our meeting yesterday, I thought we were pretty certain that they all had been granted waivers.

Agencies are asking for the information that led us to believe waivers had been granted. I’ll need to respond to them. What can I tell them?

I’ll check email a few times this afternoon and send you updates if there’s anything substantive to report. I’ll send you a final update by 5:00-6:00, even if it’s just to say I don’t have anything new to report.

As I mentioned, [redacted], but don’t hesitate to call if you want to discuss. Given the vast majority of responses are effectively questioning the accuracy of the information we relied upon, the sooner we clear up any misunderstanding (on anybody’s part) the better. I may [redacted], but I’ll be around. My office phone (202-482-9223) will roll over to my home phone, my OGE phone is [redacted], and my personal cell is [redacted].
