What are SGEs?

Are they really "special"?

What should I generally know about SGEs?

What is an SGE?

Notwithstanding the next preceding sentence, every person serving as a parttime local representative of a Member of Congress in the Member's home district or State shall be classified as a special Government employee. Notwithstanding section 29(c) and (d) [1] of the Act of August 10, 1956 (70A Stat. 632; 5 U.S.C. 30r(c) and (d)), a Reserve officer of the Armed Forces, or an officer of the National Guard of the United States, unless otherwise an officer or employee of the United States, shall be classified as a special Government employee while on active duty solely for training. A Reserve officer of the Armed Forces or an officer of the National Guard of the United States who is voluntarily serving a period of extended active duty in excess of one hundred and thirty days shall be classified as an officer of the United States within the meaning of section 203 and sections 205 through 209 and 218. A Reserve officer of the Armed Forces or an officer of the National Guard of the United States who is serving involuntarily shall be classified as a special Government employee. The terms "officer or employee" and "special Government employee" as used in sections 203, 205, 207 through 209, and 218, shall not include enlisted members of the Armed Forces.

Non-FACA SGEs Designations

NON-FACA SGEs (e.g., individual experts, consultants, etc.) are appointed pursuant to the agency's own internal personnel rules and procedures in conformance with other relevant authorities. Agencies must also designate the status of Non-FACA SGEs for ethics purposes.

Advisory Committee Best Practices

- 1. Ensure a systematic approach for designations
- 2. Be involved early on in the appointment process
- 3. Establish points of contact for member ethics issues
- 4. Ensure member status is on appointment documents
- 5. Ensure SGE members know their role on the committee
- 6. Provide SGE members with training materials promptly
- 7. Ensure representatives know the group they are representing

What core ethics rules apply to SGEs?

How do you better manage your SGEs' ethics issues?

Laws & Regulations

- Criminal statutes (18 USC 201-209)
- Standards of Conduct (5 CFR 2635)
- Financial disclosure (5 CFR 2634)
- Ethics training (5 CFR 2638)
- Others, e.g., Emoluments Clause, Foreign Gifts & Decorations Act, Hatch Act

Ethics Issues on Panels

- Panel Formation
 - Work with DFO/CMO/Management to collect financial disclosure information
 - Type of matter(s) to be considered
 - Determine ethics issues, apply remedy
- Panel Operation & Termination
 - Vet ethics issues before each new matter and for post-employment
 - Communication during charter and membership renewal

Avoiding Problems

- Disclosure forms require follow-up
- Don't forget about subcommittees
- Work with DFO on committee charge
- Know when the matter...matters
- If it's not documented, it didn't happen
- Remember your remedies
- Expect the unexpected

Major Differences for SGEs Not on FACA Panels

- No 5 CFR 2640.203(g) exception
- No emoluments clause exception
- No 18 USC 208(b)(3) waivers
- Not as easy to find as panel members
- Who's minding your store?

Before, During & After

Before:

- Better to vet SGEs before they show up
- Watch out for "resurrected" employees
- SGEs are "Special" not "special"

During:

- No disclosure, no excuse
- Watch those days
- Be the reference
- The more you ask, the more you know

After:

- SGEs still are NOT "special"
- Watch the days...and the money
- Might see them again as they "transition"

Some Parting Words of...Wisdom?

- It's "déjà vu" all over again
- The "Oath of Office" is more than just pretty words
- Where you sit matters, not where you stand
- Know yourself and others
- You are never alone

Federally Registered Lobbyists FACA-SGEs

A Presidential memorandum dated June 18, 2010 directed Executive agencies not to appoint or re-appoint Federally registered lobbyists to advisory committees, review panels, or other similar groups.

Revised guidance from OMB dated August 13, 2014 (79 Fed. Reg. 47482) indicated ban does not apply to representatives.

I HEREBY certify that I am NOT a Federally registered lobbyist, or I have ceased active lobbying as reflected in a filed bona fide de-registration, or I have been de-listed by my employer, or I have been absent from a quarterly lobbying report for three consecutive quarters.
