

WHAT DO YOU DO?

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

You meet your colleague and friend for happy hour. She just came from a planning meeting at the office with an Agency contractor. She's very excited. Before the meeting, the contractor expressed an interest in hiring her.

WHAT COULD YOU DO?

Your colleague and friend just came from a planning meeting with an Agency contractor. Before the meeting, the contractor expressed an interest in hiring her.

ETHICS PRINCIPLES

Loyalty to Law

Selfless Service

Responsible Stewardship

ETHICS RULES

Your colleague and friend just came from a planning meeting with an Agency contractor. Before the meeting, the contractor expressed an interest in hiring her.

ETHICS PRINCIPLES

Loyalty to Law

Selfless Service

Responsible Stewardship

ETHICS RULES

18 USC 208
Subpart F

Subpart E
Subpart G

Your colleague and friend just came from a planning meeting with an Agency contractor. Before the meeting, the contractor expressed an interest in hiring her.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

You help an employee through a particularly difficult personal issue that had ethics implications. The employee is an accomplished artist. For your birthday, she gives you a painting you openly admired.

WHAT COULD YOU DO?

You help an employee through a particularly difficult personal/ethics issue. She gives you a painting you openly admired.

ETHICS PRINCIPLES

Loyalty to Law

Selfless Service

Responsible Stewardship

ETHICS RULES

You help an employee through a particularly difficult personal/ethics issue. She gives you a painting you openly admired.

ETHICS PRINCIPLES

Loyalty to Law

Selfless Service

Responsible Stewardship

ETHICS RULES

Subpart C

Subpart E

Subpart G

18 USC 209

You help an employee through a particularly difficult personal/ethics issue. She gives you a painting you openly admired.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Your agency head wants to accept free attendance at a very small, exclusive dinner event. Everyone attending (except the host) has significant issues pending before the agency.

Your advice—don't attend. His response, "come with me as my guest to keep me out of trouble."

WHAT COULD
YOU DO?

Your agency head wants to attend a very exclusive dinner event. Attendance is a really bad idea. “Don’t go,” you say. “Come with me as my guest,” he responds.

ETHICS PRINCIPLES

Loyalty to Law

Selfless Service

Responsible Stewardship

ETHICS RULES

Your agency head wants to attend a very exclusive dinner event. Attendance is a really bad idea. “Don’t go,” you say. “Come with me as my guest,” he responds.

ETHICS PRINCIPLES

Loyalty to Law

Selfless Service

Responsible Stewardship

ETHICS RULES

Subpart B

Subpart G

Your agency head wants to attend a very exclusive dinner event. Attendance is a really bad idea. "Don't go," you say. "Come with me as my guest," he responds.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

You provide written advice to a Section Chief, which includes both a legal analysis and cautionary appearance considerations.

The Section Chief tells you:

“Never provide anything other than a strict reading of the law and regulations to me or my staff.”

WHAT COULD
YOU DO?

“Never provide anything other than a strict reading of the law and regulations to me or my staff.”

ETHICS PRINCIPLES

Loyalty to Law

Selfless Service

Responsible Stewardship

ETHICS RULES

“Never provide anything other than a strict reading of the law and regulations to me or my staff.”

ETHICS PRINCIPLES

Loyalty to Law

Selfless Service

Responsible Stewardship

ETHICS RULES

5 CFR 2638

“Never provide anything other than a strict reading of the law and regulations to me or my staff.”

WHAT DO YOU DO?
