COMMENTS
(5.5) At the time of the inspection, OGE noted that IBWC procedures required the inclusion of the statement regarding financial disclosure requirements and an explanation that new entrant reports must be filed within 30 days of appointment in the notices to prospective employees, where applicable. However, the template for the notices including the financial disclosure requirements had not been drafted. As a result of OGE's observation, the DAEO added the required language to the agency's template notice to prospective employees who would be new entrant financial disclosure report filers.
